INTRODUCTION

The Model Constitution for Congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America originally was adopted by the Constituting Convention of this church in Columbus, Ohio, on April 30, 1987. This was done as required by the Constitutions, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

This current edition of the Model Constitution for Congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America contains changes adopted by the 1989, 1991, 1993, 1995, 1997, 1999, 2001, 2003, and 2005 Churchwide Assemblies.

The model is consistent with the requirements of the constitutional governing documents of the ELCA's churchwide organization and synods.

➤ Required provisions: Sections of this constitution marked by an asterisk [*] are required when a congregation amends its governing documents. These sections must be used without alteration or amendment of the text in any manner (neither additions nor deletions). This is in keeping with provision 9.52. in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. This provision stipulates that when a congregation of this church "wishes to amend any provision of its governing documents, the governing documents of that congregation shall be so amended to conform to 9.25.b." in the churchwide constitution. The provisions herein marked by an asterisk are those that are indicated as required in ELCA constitutional provision 9.25.b.

➤ Review by synod: In keeping with provisions that apply to all congregations of this church, each congregation is to provide a copy of its governing documents to the synod. As specified by ELCA bylaw 9.53.03. (numbering as listed in the 1991 and subsequent editions):

All proposed changes in the constitution or incorporation documents of a congregation shall be referred to the synod with which the congregation is affiliated. The synod shall approve or disapprove the proposed changes within 120 days of receipt thereof, and shall notify the congregation of its decision; in the absence of a decision, the changes shall go into effect.

➤ Codification explanation: A numerical codification indicates (a) general subject, (b) constitutional provisions, (c) bylaws, and (d) continuing resolutions.

- a. Major sectors are designated as chapters. The chapter designation becomes the first number in the codification sequence and is followed by a period. Thus, provisions in "Chapter 8. Membership" are preceded by "8."
- b. Constitutional provisions are codified with two sets of numbers: the chapter number and a two-digit number preceding the second period in the codification. Thus, one constitutional provision related to "Membership" is codified *C8.02.
- c. Bylaw provisions are codified with three sets of numbers: the chapter number, the related constitutional provision number, and a two-digit number. Thus, one bylaw provision related to "Membership" would be codified C8.02.01. Because bylaws and continuing resolutions normally are so specifically related to details of each congregation's organization, operation, and life, no model set of bylaws or continuing resolutions is provided. Each congregation may develop its own bylaws and continuing resolutions, but no such bylaws or continuing resolutions may conflict with this constitution, the constitution and bylaws of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, and the constitution of the synod, as indicated in *C6.03.e.
- d. The Congregation Council may adopt "continuing resolutions," which may provide descriptions of operational patterns or of the ongoing responsibilities of committees or other units within the organizational structure of the congregation. Within the governing documents of a congregation, continuing resolutions are the provisions most easily amended. Unlike constitutional provisions and bylaws, continuing resolutions may be updated regularly by the Congregation Council without the necessity of calling a regular or special Congregation Meeting. Continuing resolutions also are codified with three sets of numbers except that the third set is preceded by a capital letter. Thus, a continuing resolution might be numbered C13. to designate the chapter; C13.07. to designate the subject matter within the chapter; and the third set might be numbered A05. in the codification C13.07.A05. to indicate by the "A" that it is the first continuing resolution regarding that subject and to indicate by the "05" that it was adopted in 2005.

➤ Ease of use: The provisions of your congregation's constitution, the bylaws, and the continuing resolutions that pertain to the same matter should be placed together for clarity and ease in use.

If chapter numbers are considered the major sequence number, constitution numbers as a fraction of the chapter number, and bylaw numbers as a fraction of the constitution number, then the codification can be said to provide a progressive sequence. Thus, *C5.01. will precede C5.03.10., and C9.11.16. will precede *C9.13.

All provisions in the Model Constitution for Congregations are prefaced with "C" to distinguish these provisions from comparable ones in the synodical and churchwide constitutions.

➤ Missing numbers: As you work with the Model Constitution for Congregations, you may notice that certain numbers seem to be missing from the numbering sequence in some chapters. That is intentional. In the style followed here, the number “.10.” and multiples thereof have been reserved for possible use as section headings in future editions. Therefore, in the sequence, for example, of Chapters 1, 9, and 12, these “.10.” numbers do not appear.

➤ Selection of options: Alternatives are provided in certain places within the model. Those are noted by square brackets. For example, *C9.01. offers the alternative of election of a call committee by the congregation or by the Congregation Council. One alternative should be chosen in each instance where square brackets appear in the text.

Optional texts are provided in separate paragraphs in Chapters 11 and 12 regarding the Congregation Council and its membership. Each congregation will need to select one of those options for council membership or a variation thereof, subject to approval through the synod’s constitutional review process.

➤ References to church: In the governing documents, “Church” with a capital letter is used in references to the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. In references to the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, the words “church” and “this church” in lower case letters are employed, although, for clarity in this constitution, the full name or “ELCA” normally is used.

The specific congregation may be identified, as provided in C1.02., as “this congregation.”

➤ Guidelines: A list of guidelines for a congregation engaging in review and amendment of its constitution is available through each synod office and on the ELCA Web site (www.elca.org/secretary/Constitutions/ModelGuide.pdf).

The task of amending a constitution is not easy. It is, however, an important endeavor that merits thoughtful work. In your constitutional responsibilities, God grant you wisdom, mutual love, clear understanding of good order, and commitment to the unity of this church in faithful witness to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

CONSTITUTION OF THE CONGREGATION CHRIST EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH MILTON, PENNSYLVANIA

PREAMBLE

We, baptized members of the Church of Christ, responding in faith to the call of the Holy Spirit through the Gospel, desiring to unite together to preach the Word, administer the sacraments, and carry out God's mission, do hereby adopt this constitution and solemnly pledge ourselves to be governed by its provisions. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Chapter 1.

NAME AND INCORPORATION

- C1.01. The name of this congregation shall be Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church.
- C1.02. For the purpose of this constitution and the accompanying bylaws, the congregation of Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church is hereinafter designated as "this congregation."
- C1.11. This congregation shall be incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Chapter 2.

CONFESSION OF FAITH

- *C2.01. This congregation confesses the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
- *C2.02. This congregation confesses Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and the Gospel as the power of God for the salvation of all who believe.
 - a. Jesus Christ is the Word of God incarnate, through whom everything was made and through whose life, death, and resurrection God fashions a new creation.
 - b. The proclamation of God's message to us as both Law and Gospel is the Word of God, revealing judgment and mercy through word and deed, beginning with the Word in creation, continuing in the history of Israel, and centering in all its fullness in the person and work of Jesus Christ.
 - c. The canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the written Word of God. Inspired by God's Spirit speaking through their authors, they record and announce God's revelation centering in Jesus Christ. Through them God's Spirit speaks to us to create and sustain Christian faith and fellowship for service in the world.
- *C2.03. This congregation accepts the canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the inspired Word of God and the authoritative source and norm of its proclamation, faith, and life.
- *C2.04. This congregation accepts the Apostles', Nicene, and Athanasian Creeds as true declarations of the faith of this congregation.

- *C2.05. This congregation accepts the Unaltered Augsburg Confession as a true witness to the Gospel, acknowledging as one with it in faith and doctrine all churches that likewise accept the teachings of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession.
- *C2.06. This congregation accepts the other confessional writings in the Book of Concord, namely, the Apology of the Augsburg Confession, the Smalcald Articles and the Treatise, the Small Catechism, the Large Catechism, and the Formula of Concord, as further valid interpretations of the faith of the Church.
- *C2.07. This congregation confesses the Gospel, recorded in the Holy Scripture and confessed in the ecumenical creeds and Lutheran confessional writings, as the power of God to create and sustain the Church for God's mission in the world.

Chapter 3.

NATURE OF THE CHURCH

- *C3.01. All power in the Church belongs to our Lord Jesus Christ, its head. All actions of this congregation are to be carried out under his rule and authority.
- *C3.02. The Church exists both as an inclusive fellowship and as local congregations gathered for worship and Christian service. Congregations find their fulfillment in the universal community of the Church, and the universal Church exists in and through congregations. The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, therefore, derives its character and powers both from the sanction and representation of its congregations and from its inherent nature as an expression of the broader fellowship of the faithful. In length, it acknowledges itself to be in the historic continuity of the communion of saints; in breadth, it expresses the fellowship of believers and congregations in our day.

Chapter 4.

Pleibel as a perpetual memorial for her husband, John G. Pleibel, shall be used to endow the annual purchase of flowering plants for the beautification of the church grounds, and cut flowers to adorn the altar on selected days in the church year. - C5.11. There shall be a Housing Allowance Trust. This special fund, established by the sale of the former parsonage in 1993 with an original investment of $91,000, is to be used to partially offset the cost of the Pastor's annual housing allowance. C9.12.01. The pastor of this congregation is expected to take into consideration all the ethical principles of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America that have bearing upon any situation in which ethical judgment is to be exercised. The course of action chosen is expected to be consistent with both the spirit and the letter of these principles. The particular situation determines the ethic that applies and the manner of its application. Ethical behavior in a given situation must satisfy more than the judgment of the individual ordained minister.

The following standards for parish practice shall provide the basis for making ethical pastoral judgments in this congregation about ministerial actions:

A. Baptism.

- 1) Instruction shall normatively precede every Baptism. Such instruction includes an explanation of both the meaning of the Baptism and the responsibilities for the Christian nurture of the baptized. The officiant is responsible for such instructions.
- 2) Baptism in the presence of the worshipping congregation shall be normative. Private Baptisms are emergency procedures.

- 3) One of the persons exercising parental responsibility for an infant to be baptized shall be an active member of the Lutheran church, and the sacrament shall be normally administered and recorded in the parish where that person holds membership.
- 4) The officiant shall normally be the pastor of the parish. Any other officiant serves only at the invitation of that parish pastor.

B. Communion.

- 2) The whole congregation shall be invited to participate whenever Communion is celebrated: e.g. at weddings, funerals.
- 3) The host parish shall inform the home parish when visitors commune.
- 4) The presiding minister at Communion shall normally be the pastor of the parish. Any other celebrant serves only at the invitation of that parish pastor.

C. Marriage.

- 1) Pre-marital counseling shall include an interpretation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America's understanding of and statements on marriage, and information about the applicable laws of the state where the marriage is to be performed. The officiant shall be responsible for the counseling.
- 2) Either the bride or the groom shall normally be a member of the parish where the wedding is to be held.
- 3) The officiant shall normally be the pastor of the parish. Any other officiant or assisting clergy shall serve only at the invitation of the parish pastor.
- 4) Where the officiant is not the parish pastor, the marriage shall be recorded in the parish where the wedding is held.

D. Funerals.

- 1) Funeral services for members of the congregation shall most appropriately be held in the church.
- 2) A distinction in both content and form marks burial services for persons who are not active members of the Church at the time of their death, without affecting pastoral care and concern for the bereaved.
- 3) Funeral services for those who are members of another parish shall be conducted only with the prior approval of the pastor of the parish to which the deceased belonged. They shall be recorded in the parish where they are conducted.
- 4) Pastors provide educational opportunities for dealing with death and grief. They encourage and assist members to plan and prepare for funeral services in accordance with the practices of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. They inform members of the options: e.g. a memorial service, cremation.

E. Pastoral Visitation.

- 1) Pastors understand "visitation" to be any visit that an ordained minister makes on the basis of the pastoral office.
- 2) A pastor makes a "visitation" to a member of another local or a former parish only at the request or with the consent of that person's pastor.

F. Pastoral Counseling.

- 1) Pastors are accountable to the congregations they serve for their time spent in counseling ministry.
- 2) Pastors shall normally counsel only members of their congregations.
- 3) Pastors advertise as counselors only if accredited by a certifying body in that field.
- 4) "Pastoral conversation" is privileged communication and may not be shared without a release by the parties involved except to prevent the commission of a crime.

G. Ecumenical Issues.

- 1) Pastors shall work toward ecumenical cooperation.
- 2) Pastors shall observe the same ethical standards in providing pastoral services to members of other communions as they do in providing pastoral services to members of their own congregations.
- 3) The pastor of the parish in which an ecumenical service is to be conducted shall be responsible for the form and content of that service.
- 4) Pastors shall participate in ecumenical or community events only in ways that are consistent with the confessional teachings of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

H. Remuneration Issues.

- 1) Pastors accept employment beyond that of the congregation to which they are called only with consent of that calling body and/or the bishop of the synod.
- 2) Pastors require no additional remuneration for the performance of ministerial acts within their parishes: e.g., baptisms, weddings, funerals.

C9.13. The pastor shall submit a report of his or her ministry to the bishop of the synod at least 90 days prior to each regular meeting of the Synod Assembly.

C9.14. The parochial records of this congregation shall be maintained by the pastor and shall remain the property of the congregation. DISCIPLINE OF MEMBERS AND ADJUDICATION

C15.01. Denial of the Christian faith as described in this constitution, conduct grossly unbecoming a member of the Church of Christ, or persistent trouble-making in this congregation are sufficient cause for discipline of a member. Prior to disciplinary action, reconciliation will be attempted following Matthew 18:15-17, proceeding through these successive steps: a) private admonition by the pastor, b) admonition by the pastor in the presence of two or three witnesses, and c) citation to appear before the Congregation Council. If, for any reason, the pastor is unable to administer the admonitions required by a. and b. hereof, the president (if not the pastor) or vice president shall administer such admonitions.

C15.02. The process for discipline of a member of the congregation shall be governed as prescribed by the chapter on discipline in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. The written charges shall be filed with the pastor, who shall advise the Congregation Council of the need to issue a written citation to the accused and the accusers that specifies the time and place of the hearing before the Congregation Council. The written charges shall accompany the written citation to the accused. A member charged with the offense shall appear before the Congregation Council after having received a written citation, at least ten days prior to the meeting. If the member charged with the offense fails to appear at the scheduled hearing, the Congregation Council may proceed with the hearing and may pass judgment in the member's absence.

- C15.03. Members of the Congregation Council who participate in the preparation of the written charges or who present evidence or testimony in the hearing before the Congregation Council are disqualified from voting upon the question of the guilt of the accused member. Should the allegations be sustained by a two-thirds majority vote of the members of the Congregation Council who are not disqualified but who are present and voting, and renewed admonition prove ineffectual, the council shall impose one of the following disciplinary actions:
 - a. censure before the council or congregation;
 - b. suspension from membership for a definite period of time; or
 - c. exclusion from membership in this congregation.Disciplinary actions b. and c. shall be delivered to the member in writing.
- C15.04. The member against whom disciplinary action has been taken by the Congregation Council shall have the right to appeal the decision to the Synod Council. Such right may not be abridged and the decision of the Synod Council shall be final.
- C15.05. Disciplinary actions may be reconsidered and revoked by the Congregation Council upon receipt of a) evidence that injustice has been done or b) evidence of repentance and amendment.
- C15.06. For disciplinary actions in this congregation, "due process" shall be observed as specified in 20.41.04. in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.
