Congratulations!

...for the birth of Lillian Katherine Reaser, born to Michael and Allison Reaser on Feb. 9, 2007. Lillian is also the granddaughter of James and Janice Reaser of Sinking Spring, PA and the Great Granddaughter of the late Fred and Marion Reed (all former members of Christ Lutheran).

Dear Friends in Christ,

"Do you not know? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not grow tired or weary, and his understanding no one can fathom. He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak. Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint." (Isaiah 40:28-31, NIV)

Those words from Isaiah have served as a source of strength to me on many occasions. As I write this to you from the back deck of my home in West Virginia, I watch birds soaring and calling their reminders that God is still bringing strength that goes far beyond us.

I am here, pondering the blessing of my youngest son, Justin. Justin was in a serious auto accident on May 9, the day after his 26th birthday. He broke his neck. He both lives and moves by the sheer grace of God.

All Justin has to face physically is 6-8 weeks of healing in a neck brace. All he faces spiritually is a lifetime of thanksgiving. He has the blessing of the life he yet has to live and the ministry God yet is calling him to do.

Thank you for walking this blessed journey with your pastor. Thank you for bringing me the signs of our God who gives strength to the weary. God has carried me, and God has carried Justin, in the arms of God's people who proclaim God's everlasting hope and love.

God bless you.

Your partner in mission and ministry,

Pastor Pat ☺

Vacation Bible School
July 9-13

The theme is Great Bible Reef – Dive Deep into God’s Word! Dive into fin-tastic fun at the reef!

The library has a copy of And God Created Laughter; the Bible as Divine Comedy. The book is written by Conrad Hyers. Recognizing how laughter and humor are integral to our serious study of the Bible, this book brings you the Divine Humorist who has humbled the proud and exalted the lowly. The author opens the joy of understanding the Bible in all its fullness.

Irony abounds in the Bible. There are many ways the writer reminds us of the celebration of life and the divine comedy of faith, hope and love.

It is a good read.

The Stewardship Committee would be very happy, if you would wear your Cheerful Giver Pin during the summer. It does not have to be every Sunday. Occasionally would be very nice. Thank you.

There are 15 basic principles regarding stewardship from advice that Paul gives in his letters of the New Testament.

Stewardship Giving involves more than financial contributions – we first commit ourselves to the Lord and to the church at large. (2 Cor. 8:5).

What Confirmation Means To Me

I’ve been going to Christ Lutheran Church for about three years. At first I felt out of place a little, but then I got baptized and I felt closer to everyone and the church. When I get confirmed I hope to feel ever more welcomed and closer to God.

I’ve learned a lot in my three years at church, and I hope to learn more after I’m confirmed. So far I’ve learned many things like the Ten Commandments, the Nicene, the Apostles, and the Athanasian creeds, the Sacraments and what they mean to the church, the many stories of Jesus, and much more. When I’m confirmed I am hoping to be closer to the members of the church. Also I hope to learn more about the history of the Lutheran church.

To me confirmation means to become a true member of the church and the Lord’s family. It also is important because I will be one of the Lords disciples. Right now I don’t feel like one of the Lord’s disciples even if I am one. I believe when I get confirmed I’ll feel more like a disciple more than I do now. Being confirmed is very important to me because I want to be closer to God.

Since I serve as an acolyte and torchbearer I feel like I’m more respected. Soon I hope to be able vote and do other important things in the church. To me confirmation is like turning eighteen in the real world. I’ll be able to take part in more things in the church. The main reason I want to be confirmed is to be closer to the Lord.

I’ve been going to church for three years. After I get confirmed I will be going to church for many years to come. My life verse is very important to me because it lets me know that in the Lords eyes I’m going to be recognized for what I am and that I can take refuge in the Lord.

Psalms 27:5: For he will hide me in his shelter in the day of trouble; he will conceal me under his tent; he will set me high on a rock.

--Brody Gray

What does confirmation mean to me? Confirmation has given me the opportunity to learn how to follow God. I feel it has given me the opportunity to become a better person by learning more about my faith. This will help me to teach or to help spread the news to others in what I believe in. I believe that God accepts us as we are and not by what we should have to write or say in order to get others approval. I feel he loves us just they way we are. Our Lord God has accepted us into his kingdom from the moment of our conception. The first step into our faith's journey is by being baptized. I was baptized on 5-31-92. I feel the second step was receiving holy communion. This was a choice I made when we became members here at Christ Lutheran Church in 2003. I am following my heart by completing the next step, the confirmation process on 5-27-07.

Worshipping God will always play an important role in my life. I hope my love between church and God will continue to grow stronger as I get older. Even though God is not here on earth, he is always with us. I will always cherish the sacrifices he has made for us. Being one of his disciples is an important responsibility. We should always be prepared for what God calls us to do.

My parents encourage me to pursue the gifts God has given to me. I enjoy singing because it makes me feel closer to God when I sing. I often sing in choir, at church (hymnals), and just sing for fun. I believe that this is a way of communicating with the Lord. On Church Music Sunday, I always feel a sense that God is standing by my side, helping me to be the best I can be.

Learning about God's Disciples has helped me to learn about the sacrifices that they made for God. These sacrifices were not as great as God's ultimate sacrifice, but it showed how much they truly cared for him. My favorite story out of all God's disciples is Moses. Moses led God's people out from the pharaoh because he was mistreating them. When Moses got to the sea, the pharaoh's army was coming in close for them. All of a sudden, God gave Moses the strength to part the sea. This showed that God works in ways we cannot see but can believe.

My life verse is Psalm 9 verses 1 & 2. It states: "I will give Thanks to you, O Lord, with all my heart; I will declare all your wondrous deeds. I will be glad to exult in you; I will sing praise to your name, Most High". I feel this is a great bible verse, in which all members of our church family should follow. My mentors, Kathleen Burch and Laurie Fisher are good examples of this verse. My mom has been a tremendous help with my journey since the day I was born. They have all shared in my faith's journey. They are very strong women with hearts of god.

- Lindsay Anne Byers

What confirmation means to me is being close to God. I have decided that I want to try and have a close relationship with our Lord. I feel this is a serious decision which should not be entered into lightly. My parents started my religious journey for me on 8-8-93. This was the day I was baptized. I shared this special day with my family as an infant. The date August 8th is special to me because it is the day I was baptized as well as it being my Great-Grandfather's birthday. The place I was baptized is also important to me as well. Zion Lutheran Church in Turbotville, PA, was my first church home. This is a place where my great grandparents have been members for more than 50 years, my parents got married in this church, and all of my siblings and I were baptized in this church. This is the first place I learned about God. I attended 2 years of pre-school in this church as well. My first steps in the Lutheran faith took place in this church.

The confirmation process is allowing me to choose to continue my life's journey with the Lutheran Faith. Christ Lutheran Church in Milton was an important place in my life in my early years as well. Before becoming a member in 2003, my family attended dance classes and girl scouts in this church. This place of worship offers more than just meeting with God on Sundays. This house of God offered me a ton of opportunities to grow to be a better Christian without necessarily attending a church service in this building. Since becoming a member here I continued from previous page) have enjoyed meeting new members and cherish the relationships that I have made with my mentors.

I believe being a servant of God means that we should help people. The Lord wants us to give back to the world we live in. My mentors, Laurie Fisher and Evelyn Campbell, have helped me grow in my faith this past year. I have deep respect and special appreciation to these two wonderful ladies for their help. They have both made my confirmation process more memorable and enjoyable. My parents have always tried to instill that we need to try to help others. I have helped with Food Drives, Relay for Life Events and making Easter Baskets for the shut-ins. My mom, sister and I have been doing the yearly Easter Basket Project since we attended Girl Scouts in 1998.

What is the importance of learning the Lord's Prayer and the Ten Commandments? I feel that the Lord's Prayer was given to us to help us to become closer to God. The Ten Commandments are here to outline the way God wants us to live our lives every day, not just on days of worship! The confirmation process has taught me that there is not just one way of communicating with God. We can speak to o u Lord in various ways. To be a good Christian does not mean just attending worship. Christianity should be reflected in our every day life! When I think of this last statement, I think of my Sunday school teacher, Larry Gray. I cannot put into words the kindness and fellowship he has offered me!

My life verse is Psalm 23 verse 4 "Even though I walk through the darkest valley," I fear no evil; for you are with me; your rod and your staff – they comfort me. I chose this verse, because it describes me. It tells me even through all the bad times and the bad things God is always there to protect me. He loves us even through all the bad things we do. The other reason I chose this verse is because it was a verse my great-great-grandmother used to read to my mom. Even though I never knew her I know I am a lot like her. --Lauren Byers
